FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK
Mr. David L. Chambers, Principal

"Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail."
Ralph Waldo Emerson

This quote translates well as a goal for life after high school. In the not so distant future, you will be walking out the front doors of East Windsor High School forever...BE CAREFUL! BE PREPARED! BE READY!

Imagine for one moment that just outside our doors is a swift moving stream or conveyer belt that you did not know existed. Imagine the surprise and bewilderment you would feel as soon as your feet made contact. You would be swept off your feet and taken in an unknown path and direction. Not until you were able to get your bearings, would you be able to identify, at the very least, the direction you were traveling.

It could be argued that walking out of the front doors of high school, in general, leads many young adults to be swept off their feet simply because they were unprepared for life after high school. The world that you are about to inherit is in the midst of economic dysfunction and uncertainty. This fact alone should give you cause and purpose to define your destinations after high school.

It is my belief that you are well prepared for this future. You have been exposed to a high quality education where the expectations for all students included having strong content knowledge and understanding, becoming effective communicators and excellent problem solvers, knowing and understanding diversity awareness and being able to integrate technology into school and life. It is my expectation that you will be able to make the appropriate decisions which lead to your future experiences, whether it is college, military service or immediately joining Connecticut's work force.

We, at East Windsor High, have prepared you for the swift changes that are about to occur and feel you have all the tools necessary to "...go instead where there is no path and leave a trail"...we wish you well blazing your own personal trail and know you will accomplish all you set out to do.

With all of my heart, I wish you good luck!

"Endeavor to Persevere!"
From the movie "Outlaw Josey Wales"
Stated by actor Chief Dan George, character name, Lone Watie

Dedication

The Class of 2009 would like to dedicate their yearbook to Mr. John Nahas, a gem of a math teacher and an overall honest and outgoing person. Mr. Nahas is a cherished part of EWHs. His enthusiastic encouragement shows that he truly cares about each one of his students, inside, as well as outside of school. He also teaches some extremely important lessons that you would not necessarily learn in any other class, such as: what not to buy your wife for Christmas, why orange is the worst color ever, how watching a wood chipper is actually soothing & other 'stuff like that'. On a more serious note, Mr. Nahas continually stresses the need for us to believe in ourselves and stand up for what we think is right as we enter the next phase of our lives. He cares about all our futures and wants to see each & every one of us succeed and reach our dreams. For this, we thank you, Mr Nahas, for all you have done and will continue to do.

Class Motto

"Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail."

Ralph Waldo Emerson

Class History

By

Stephanie Piekos, Class Historian

It was the best of times; it was the worst of times. Literally. High school has made us face the hardest moments of our lives so far, but has brought us the most wonderful memories as well. It all started back in August of 2005. We were freshmen in the strange new world of EWHs. We probably wouldn't have survived the new obstacles we would soon face without the unending guidance & help of Mr. Masters & Mrs. Kotula, our class advisors. His amazing creative powers & her treasury and fundraising skills proved to be the perfect match to lead the Class of 2009's way through this four year journey to the rest of our lives. Karen Ladany, Nichole DeSousa, Kristin Waltiere, Jessica Francis & Ginger Starvish stepped up to the plate as our class officers. While adjusting to our new surroundings, we were able to experience EWHs's first Homecoming Dance. Kristie Jarvis & Derek Briggs were chosen to represent the freshmen in the Homecoming Court. We were also able to see how seriously the upperclassmen took Spirit Week. The hallway competition's theme was Sports. We chose football as our premise. We lost pretty miserably, but we had a great time decorating and uniting as a class.

One year down and three to go. The sophomores were starting to figure out who they really were. We were a class of innovation, creativity and opinions. We were now lead by Karen Ladany, Nichole DeSousa, Elizabeth Hoang, Alex Griffin & Stephanie Piekos. Our first event was Homecoming and Chara Cummings & Justin Wyse were elected for the Court. Spirit Week was right around the corner and we had a huge amount of confidence for a sophomore class. We decorated our hallway as the 1970's-complete with disco balls, groovy flowers & hippies. To our disappointment, we came in an extremely close second place, losing yet again to the senior class. We then decided our school needed some change, so we tried to institute a new dance: MORP (the opposite of prom). Unfortunately, our efforts were unsuccessful, but it proved to everyone else how driven the sophomores were to make themselves known in the school. We also held several extremely profitable car washes. At least, we were good at cleaning vehicles.

Junior year and we were finally upperclassmen. Chris Hayes & Derek Briggs joined Karen Ladany, Alex Griffin, Elizabeth Hoang & Stephanie Piekos to form our executive board to plan a year full of events. Homecoming came once again and the juniors chose Siriphine Nachampasak & Derek Briggs to represent us. And, who could forget the epic hallway competition? This year the theme was board games. We were out for victory. We decorated our hallway as the game, Clue, and thought we had first place in the bag. We had finally, truly came together as a class. Everyone put a huge amount of effort to make sure that the juniors would finally beat the seniors. Confusion, anger & sadness overwhelmed us when we once again came in second place. However, our spirits were lifted when prom rolled around at the end of the year. Our "Las Vegas" themed event was held at La Renaissance on May 16, 2008. Sean Carr, Kristie Jarvis, Tannisha Williams, Derek Briggs, Ariel Christie & Delsio Hilario were chosen for their sparkling personalities to be members of the Prom Court. Jessica Mooney & Justin Wyse were crowned as Prom King & Queen.

High school flew by and before we knew it, we were seniors. We had a year jam packed with activities to look forward to. We were once again led by Karen Ladany, Chris Hayes, Alex Griffin, Liz Hoang, Derek Briggs & Stephanie Piekos. Homecoming took place in the fall and the seniors chose Jessica Mooney & Derek Briggs to represent us. Kristie Jarvis & Justin Wyse were crowned as Homecoming King & Queen. Seeing as we were now seniors, we once again decided to begin a new dance tradition. The Blacklight Dance was held December 20, 2008 and it turned out to be a huge success. Finally, something did work and it was about time. The annual hallway competition had a unique twist and the results were unexpected, but finally pleasing. The end of the year flew by way too fast because of the plethora of events planned. Senior Banquet was held on May 29, 2009 at the Springfield Marriott and the Senior Outing at High Meadow followed. The senior class also spent a day at Six Flags as a final way to have some fun before graduation. Graduation was a bitter sweet time. We were moving on in our lives to bigger and better things but leaving four years filled with lasting friendships and unforgettable memories. The Class of 2009 has been known as a class of close bonds, innovation & voicing our opinions. We can only hope that the world is ready for us.

National Honor Society Advisor: Mrs. Currey

Life seems so like that bit of string;
Each deed we do a simple thing;
Yet, day by day, this is one life's strand;
We work with patient heart and hand;
It gathers joy, makes the dark days bright;
And gives us at least a lovely light.

Gasoline Alley Car Club

Advisor: Mr. Kaplan

This club gives students a place to go after school where they can pursue their interest in cars: talk about cars, work on project vehicles, learn and improve upon basic automotive skills. In addition, members also organize, advertise and put on their own car shows twice a year. Car shows consist of students' vehicles, classics, streets rods, imports, trucks, bikes and anything else on wheels. We are in the process of restoring our own vehicle to put in the show. This club is open to all students.

Spanish Club

Executive Board

The Spanish Club Executive Board is responsible for planning and organizing the yearly activities chosen by the members and their advisor. They investigate the different fundraisers available to them to raise money. The members of the board are always looking for interesting activities to offer their club participants.

History Day Advisor: Mr. Gelbar

History Day in Connecticut is part of the National History Day program. This annual competition engages students in grades 6-12 in the process of researching & interpreting a historical topic related to an annual theme. Working individually or in small groups, students are encouraged to find primary and secondary sources on their subject through research in libraries & museums, interviews, & visits to historic sites. The History Day program challenges participants to write their own history and fosters their creative talents.

Jaime Kessler, Mr. Gelbar, Nicholas Parker.

Broad Brook Fire Department

The Broad Brook Fire Department is an organization that is dedicated to serving the town of East Windsor and the neighboring towns in the preservation of life and property. It is made up of brave and noble men and women who give of themselves to join together in the common cause of firefighting. Countless hours of training are put into preparing these people to complete numerous tasks, most of which need to be performed all at once. On the street, they appear as ordinary people, but when the whistle blows and the people cry for help, they become heroes.

The One We'll Tell Our Grandchildren About

Okay, so this past year wasn't perfect. There were a few bumps in the road that may have caused the headlines to be predominately pessimistic. Californians had a little trouble putting out wildfires, and the Gulf Coast got a little soggy during Hurricanes Ike and Gustav. Wall Street and Detroit both needed to borrow a couple of bucks from the government after major banks and the "big three" U.S. automakers threatened to go bankrupt. Even our most beloved bean-counters, Starbucks, were forced to close over 200 locations due to an overwhelming economic downturn.

Yet through it all, we had some wonderful distractions to occupy our time and take us to happier places. The 2008 Olympics gave us athletes to rally around and an opening ceremony that dazzled the world. Superheroes topped the box office while Britney was busy making her comeback. And if ever we did have a problem, there was probably an application in iPhone's App Store that could solve it.

And underneath all of this – the good, the bad, and the ugly – was the constant buzz of the 2008 Presidential race. From the lengthy democratic primary to the overwhelming voter turnout on election day, the race was historic from day one. And in a time when words like "recession" and "bailout" seemed to dominate the nightly news, a man who built his campaign on the words "hope" and "change" became the country's choice to lead us into the next era of America. On January 20th, 2009, the entire globe watched in anticipation as Barack Hussein Obama took the Oath of Office and became the first African-American to be inaugurated as President of the United States of America.

Nope, the past year wasn't perfect; far from it. There were moments that we'd rather forget. But to have lived through it is to have witnessed history being made on some of the highest levels imaginable. And that's worth remembering.

Hero on the Hudson >

U.S. Airways pilot, Chelsey "Sully" Sullenberger, becomes a true hero when he calmly and masterfully performs an emergency water landing of U.S. Airways flight 1549 into the Hudson River, saving the lives of the 150 passengers and five crew members aboard.

< Nobody Likes Ike

The third most destructive hurricane to hit the United States, Hurricane Ike pummels the Gulf of Mexico coastline causing an estimated $27 billion in damages in the U.S..

Billions Bestowed in Bailout >

In an effort to help stabilize the country's financial system, the U.S. Government approves a $700 billion rescue plan for financial institutions with an additional $17.4 billion promised to U.S. auto manufacturers.

Crude Swings Cause Mood Swings >

Consumers see gas prices swing from over $4.11/gallon to under $1.61/gallon. With gas prices at their highest, school districts around the country are forced to cut bus routes or move to four-day school weeks to help lower fuel costs.

Bill Gates Reboots

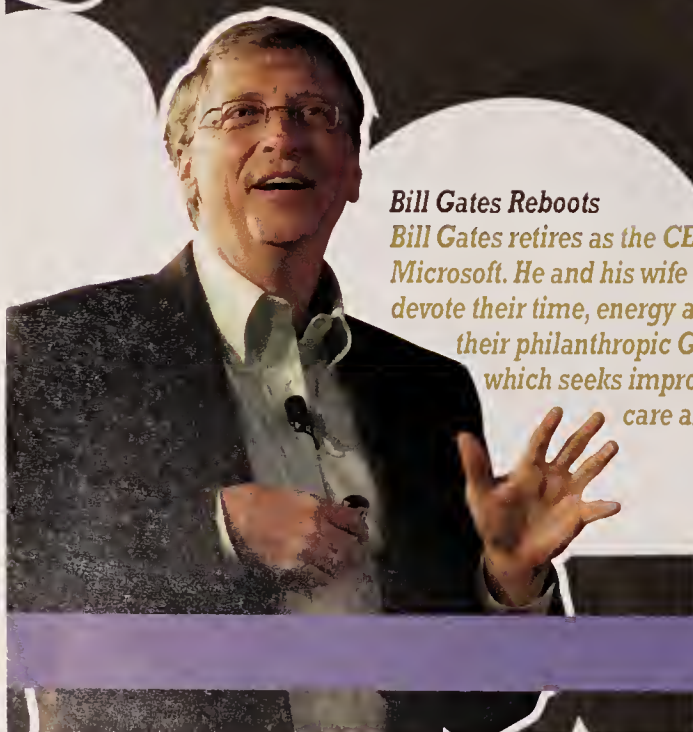

Bill Gates retires as the CEO of Microsoft. He and his wife Melinda devote their time, energy and money to their philanthropic Gates Foundation, which seeks improvements in health care and education.

< Vice Presidential Look-alike

While lampooning republican VP candidate Sarah Palin on Saturday Night Live, Tina Fey's line, "I can see Russia from my house," becomes a catchphrase that actually shapes public perception of the candidate, with some voters attributing the quote to Palin herself.

Parks on a Dime

The super-tiny, two-seater European Smart Car finally arrives in the U.S., just in time for rising gas prices and a national backlash against gas-guzzling SUVs.

< California Wildfires

California declares a state of emergency in Santa Barbara, Los Angeles and Orange Counties as wildfires scorch more than 43,000 acres of land, burning through residential areas and destroying at least 900 homes.

> Worldwide Hunger Reaches New Levels

According to the United Nations, rising food prices around the world have plunged an additional 75 million people below the hunger threshold, bringing the estimated number of undernourished people worldwide to almost 1 billion.

< Terrorist Attacks in Mumbai

In November of 2008, at least 173 people were killed and at least 308 were injured in a series of ten coordinated terrorist attacks across Mumbai, India's financial capital and its largest city. The attacks are carried out by a Pakistan-based Islamic terrorist group.

Obama-Nation

On November 4, 2008, millions of voters braved long lines at the polls to elect Barack Obama to become the 44th President of the United States and the first African American to hold the nation's highest office.

< Not Quite the Disney Pirates We're Used to Seeing in the Movies

International shipping is threatened by increased activity of Somali pirates in the Indian Ocean and Gulf of Aden. The pirates hijack merchant ships, oil tankers and cruise liners and demand ransoms.

> We Fear What We Don't Understand

Experiments involving a Large Hadron Collider spark fears among the public that the LHC particle collisions might produce doomsday phenomena, involving the production of stable microscopic black holes or the creation of hypothetical particles called strangelets.

Movies

Read the Book, See the Movie >

Girls, choose your perfume carefully. According to "Twilight," your scent could send your hunky vampire boyfriend into an uncontrollable thirst for blood.

Why... So... Serious?

In "The Dark Knight", Batman and new district attorney Harvey Dent team up to rid Gotham City of all its criminals. Meanwhile, a mysterious and psychopathic sadist known only as The Joker surfaces, unleashing a new wave of chaos and testing the limits of Batman's virtues.

< They All Lived Whackily Ever After

Skeeter Bronson's life is changed forever when the fantastical fables he fabricates with his niece and nephew start to mysteriously come true in Disney's "Bedtime Stories."

Just Do Whatever Your Cell Phone Tells You To Do >

In "Eagle Eye," Jerry and Rachel are thrown together by a series of phone calls from a mysterious and highly demanding woman who taps into limitless technologies to push them into dangerous situations and track their every move.

< The Curious Case of Benjamin Button

Benjamin Button is born an 86-year-old man and ages backwards through time, making his life...complicated. Inspired by F. Scott Fitzgerald's short story of the same name, the film earns 13 Academy Award® nominations, including Best Picture, Best Actor (Brad Pitt), and Best Director (David Fincher).

Kung Fu Panda

When Po, the laziest, most lathargic and least-likely of Kung Fu fans becomes "the chosen one" to battle Tai Lung to protect the Dragon Scroll, "panda-monium" ensues.

< Sophie Has Three Daddies

On a quest to find the identity of her father, Sophie brings back three men from her mother's past, one of whom will walk her down the aisle on her wedding day. In "Mamma Mia!" new love blooms, old romances are rekindled and everyone bursts into song and dance.

Amazing Heir Restoration

The Pevensie siblings return to Narnia, where they are enlisted to once again help ward off an evil king and restore the rightful heir to the land's throne in "The Chronicles of Narnia: Prince Caspian."

Fun Cubed

Earth's last trash compactor follows a sleek search robot into space, where he accidentally stumbles upon the key to the planet's future in Pixar's "WALL•E."

< Yes He Can

In "Yes Man," Carl Allen's life is going nowhere until a self-help seminar convinces him to say "yes" for one year to any and every opportunity life puts in his path.

Nobody Likes a Bully

Three socially deficient high school students seek to avoid a bully's reign of terror by hiring a body guard. Their best (and cheapest) candidate is a homeless, down-on-his-luck soldier named "Drillbit Taylor."

< The Archaeologist Becomes the Artifact

The fourth installment of the "Indiana Jones" movies sees our aging archaeology hero and a young whipper-snapper join forces to face the dangers of the jungle, Soviet agents, and... aliens? Nearly 30 years after "Raiders of the Lost Ark," Harrison Ford dusts off his Fedora and bullwhip to bring us "Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull."

< It's What's Inside That Counts

"Journey to the Center of the Earth" is the classic Jules Verne novel come to life. An unconventional scientist and his nephew stumble upon a major discovery that drops them into a thrilling journey deep beneath the Earth's surface, where they travel through strange worlds and encounter a variety of unusual creatures.

Metal Militia >

What happens when gazillionaire industrialist Tony Stark decides to stop building high-tech weapons and instead build an armored suit that turns him into an army of one? "Iron Man" is born.

...But Somebody's Gotta Do It
Mike Rowe hosts "Dirty Jobs with Mike Rowe" on The Discovery Channel. Showcasing the hard-working men and women of America, it's not unusual to find Mike in places like coal mines, bat caves and maggot farms. This is definitely not the show to watch during dinner.

Reality TV Animated
Twenty-two teens. One summer. Nothing in common. And the cameras animators were there to capture everything! "Total Drama Island" is the most unreal reality show on television.

< It Keeps Us Tuned In

Sure, the intertwined plotlines and eye-candy cast make this North Carolina show worth watching. But with musical guest stars like Jimmy Eat World and Fall Out Boy, it's definitely the soundtrack that keeps "One Tree Hill" at the top of our TiVo.

< Our Dad Tells Long Stories, Too

The story of "How I Met Your Mother" has been going on for four years now. We're starting to think that dad is making it up as he goes along. Luckily, the story is hilarious.

"30 Rock" is on a Roll >

In 2008, Tina Fey's "30 Rock" takes home four Emmy's, three Golden Globes and one Peabody Award while ratings continue to rise.

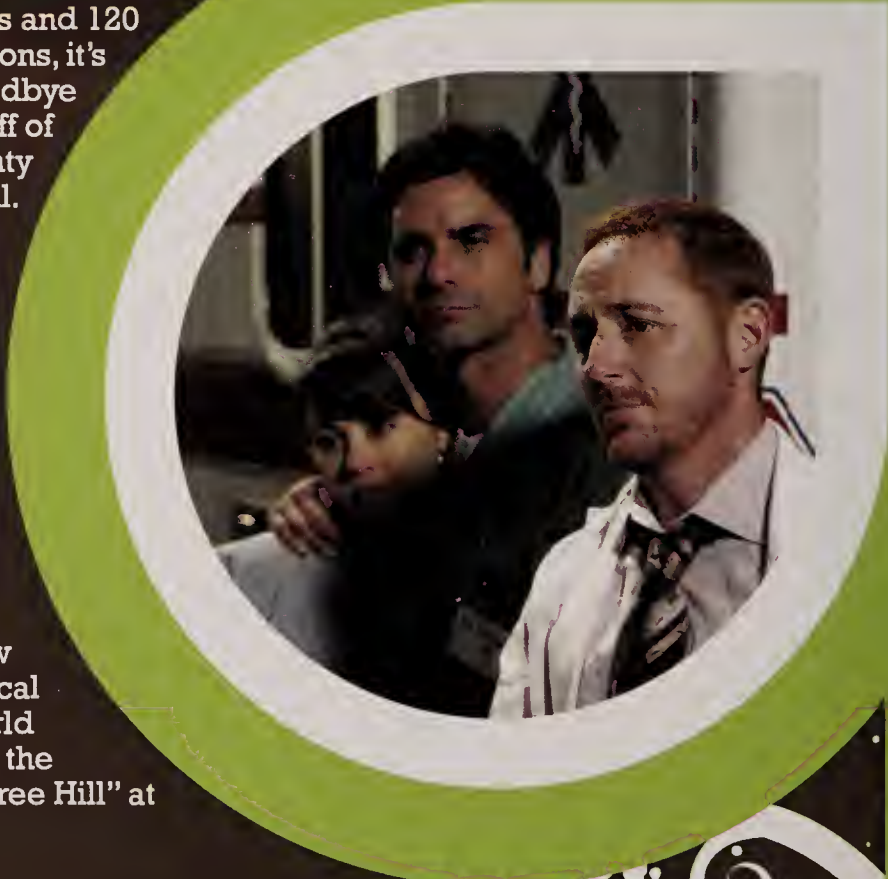

Diss and Tell >

Based on the popular book series of the same name, "Gossip Girl" gives viewers a peek into the world of privileged teenagers in an elite private school in New York City.

"ER" Flatlines >

After 15 seasons and 120 Emmy nominations, it's time to say goodbye to the staff of Chicago's County General Hospital.

"I'll Be Back....Every Friday at 8:00 on Fox." >

Picking up where The Governor's movies left off, "Terminator: The Sarah Connor Chronicles" sees Sarah and her son John on the run from Terminator robots who were sent from the future to stop John Conner from becoming the leader of the human resistance.

Will The Real Frank Caliendo Please Stand Up?

What do you do with a guy who can impersonate John Madden, Al Pacino, the entire cast of "Seinfeld" and Yoda, to name a few? You give him his own show, call it "Frank TV," and watch to see who he'll impersonate next.

The New Nine-Oh-Two >

New characters, new hairstyles, same famous zip code. "90210" is a re-boot of the popular '90s teen drama "Beverly Hills, 90210." And don't worry gang - after graduation you can re-boot "Melrose Place."

< It's Like Professional Wrestling, But With More Fighting.

"Unscripted, albeit edited to follow a storyline," MTV's "The Hills" follows Lauren Conrad as she moves to L.A. to attend fashion school and intern at Teen Vogue magazine.

"Midwest King" becomes Teen Dream

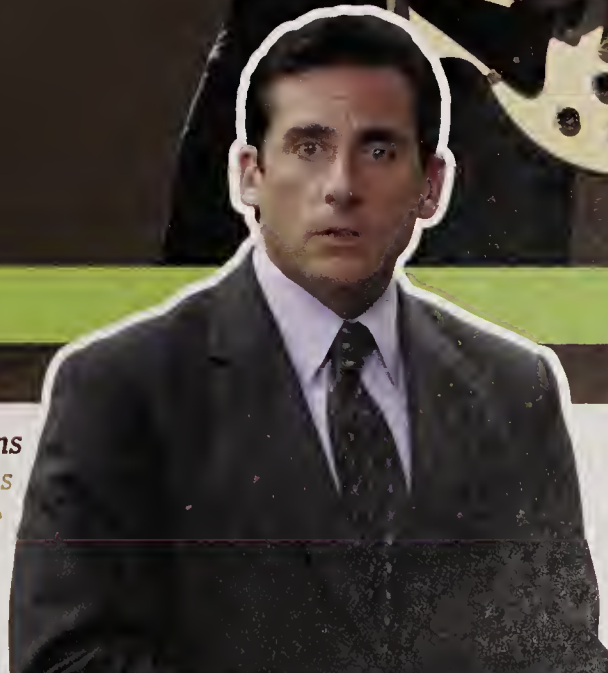

One week after edging out David Archuleta to become the 7th "American Idol," David Cook rewrote chart history when 11 of his songs debuted on Billboard's Hot 100 — the highest number of new entries in a single week by an artist since the Beatles in 1964.

< Backwards and in High Heels

Celebrity Brooke Burke and her professional dance partner Derek Hough cut rugs well enough to beat out Warren Sapp and Lance Bass, winning the seventh season of ABC's "Dancing with the Stars."

"The Office" Romances and Reunions

election

The former First Lady and Senator of New York is Obama's formidable opponent during a lengthy Democratic Primary, yet she campaigns for Obama after his nomination is secured. After his election, President Obama names Hillary Clinton as Secretary of State.

Obama's Republican opponent, Arizona
Senator John McCain spends 2008 criss-crossing the country
campaigning for President,
ultimately getting only 46% of the popular vote and 173 electoral votes to Obama's 365.

● This little-known governor from Alaska makes a huge splash when announced as John McCain's running mate. The prospect of being the country's first female Vice-President instantly makes the 2008 election historic regardless of its outcome.

On January 20th, 2009, Barack Hussein Obama became the 44th American to take the Oath of Office, and the first African American elected President of the United States. He delivered his inaugural address before a crowd packed with over 1.5 million people eager to be part of the historic inauguration, and stone silent as President Obama spoke. Grown men and women cheered and wept as they witnessed history being made. The President delivered a very crisp, clear speech addressing all walks of American life and our neighbors around the globe.

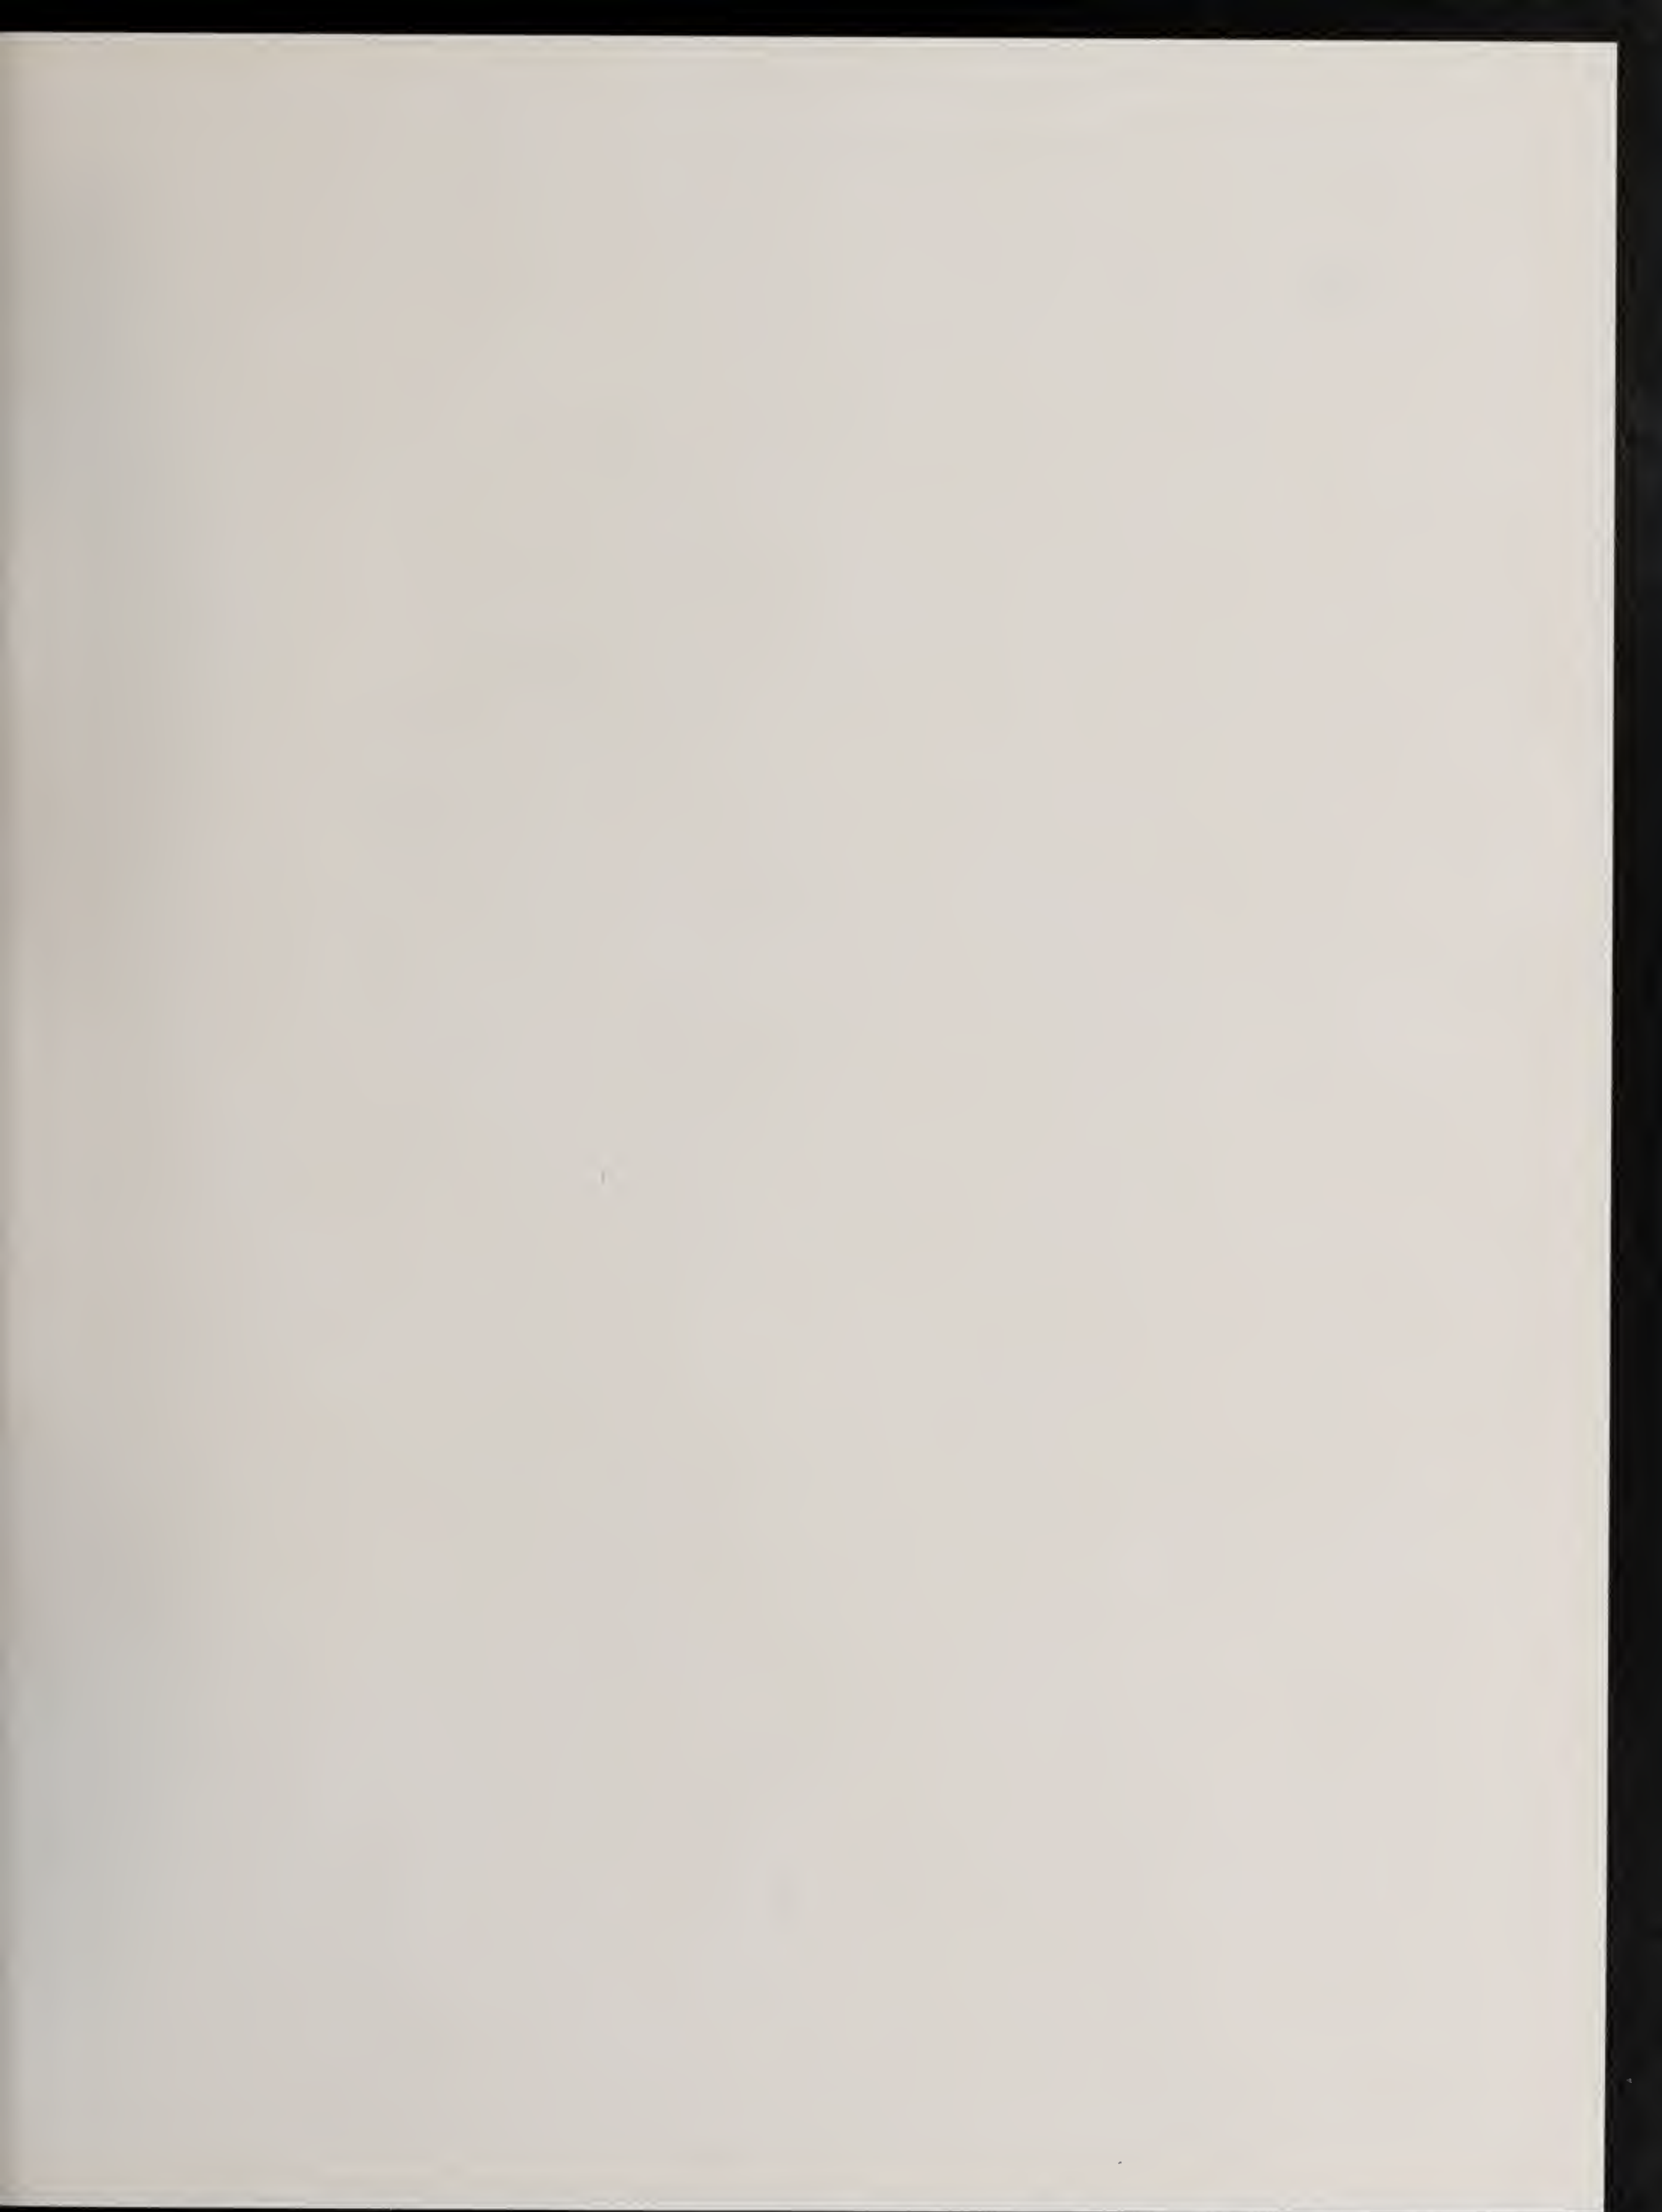

"I Stand Here Today Humbled by the Task Before Us."
Barack Obama's election is as historic as the challenges he faces as the country's leader. The man who built his campaign on hope and change addressed the nation with a somber yet optimistic call to duty for all Americans to begin rebuilding a nation that is "bigger than the sum of our individual ambitions; greater than all the differences of birth or wealth or faction."

"Starting today, we must pick ourselves up, dust ourselves off, and begin again the work of remaking America."
